Figures	Figures may be embedded in your word document but they should be created with a program that allows you to save them as gif, jpg or tiff format. For any figures or other materials directly extracted from previously published materials, you must have written permission from the publisher of that material for reprint use. A copy of that permission release must be submitted with your article. IT IS THE INDIVIDUAL AUTHOR'S RESPONSIBILITY TO ATTAIN THIS PERMISSION. To be incorporated at the end of the manuscript with proper labeling It should be written as "Fig. 1: Histopathological....."
Graphs	To be included from excel, it should be editable. Non - editable graphs will be rejected.

All text should be fully justified. Please put all primary section titles in UPPER CASE letters and subheading in both Upper and Lower Case letters. Do not number your titles (for example, 1.0 Introduction; 2.0 Background). Do not use the tab key to indent blocks of text such as paragraphs of quotes or lists because the page layout program overrides your left margin with its own, and the tabs end up in mid-sentence.

We appreciate your submission and look forward to the receipt of your signed copyright transfer, journal article and CD. After your paper is typeset, you will receive a proof copy of it by email in PDF format for your final approval. Therefore, please be sure to include your full name, affiliation, address and email address on your paper.

Delay in submitting the proof will be automatically deleted from the accepted issue of Phcog Rev.
